Collaborator with Argentine Montoneros Trained by Fedayeen

3.3(b)(1)

Ismael Jacinto Haiek received guerrilla warfare training in 1969-70 at a Palestinian camp. Haiek, an Argentine of Lebanese extraction, was arrested because of his collaboration with the Montoneros, a now illegal leftist Peronist organization that has been involved in terrorism, including some attacks on foreign targets.

3.3(b)(1)

Haiek received the training from the Palestine Liberation Organization. However, as the PLO is a political organization not directly involved in guerrilla activities, the training camp probably was sponsored by one of the PLO-member fedayeen organizations, perhaps Fatah. 3.3(b)(1) a principal reason for the training was to acquire Palestinian guerrilla warfare training materials for the Montoneros. 3.3(b)(1) training techniques, weapons and demolition devices. Communist Chinese assisted in the technical instruction photos of Fatah chief Yasir Arafat and George Habbash, leader of the Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine. 3.3(b)(1)

Haiek has been working as a journalist, and has contributed to the publications Arab Question and The Voice of Palestine. He also has been 3.3(b)(1) assisting with the Arab League's propaganda mechanism.

Meeting of the Revolutionary Coordinating Junta in Argentina

In late September, the Revolutionary Coordinating Junta (JCR) held a meeting in Tucuman, Argentina. The organizations represented were the Chilean Movement of the Revolutionary Left (MIR), the Argentine People's Revolutionary Army (ERP), the Bolivian National Liberation Army (ELN), the Uruguayan Tupamaros, and the Peruvian MIR. The purpose was to divide funds obtained by the ERP from kidnapping and extortion, and to discuss the general strategy for armed struggle in the southern cone of South America.

3.5(c)

Also attending the meeting was Jorge Insunza, a Chilean Communist leader who has been cooperating with the MIR and who, according to the Chilean press, has been acting as a financial courier between the MIR and the Argentine ERP. The Chilean Communist Party officially disapproves of this collaboration with the extremist MIR, fearing that it will damage the party's policy of nonviolence and will bring on massive government persecution.

3.3(b)(1)

Insunza brought about US $100,000 from Argentina to the MIR, and that the ERP and Montoneros are assisting the MIR with guerrilla training in Argentina.
